IN MEMORIAM

JOY SORNBERGER

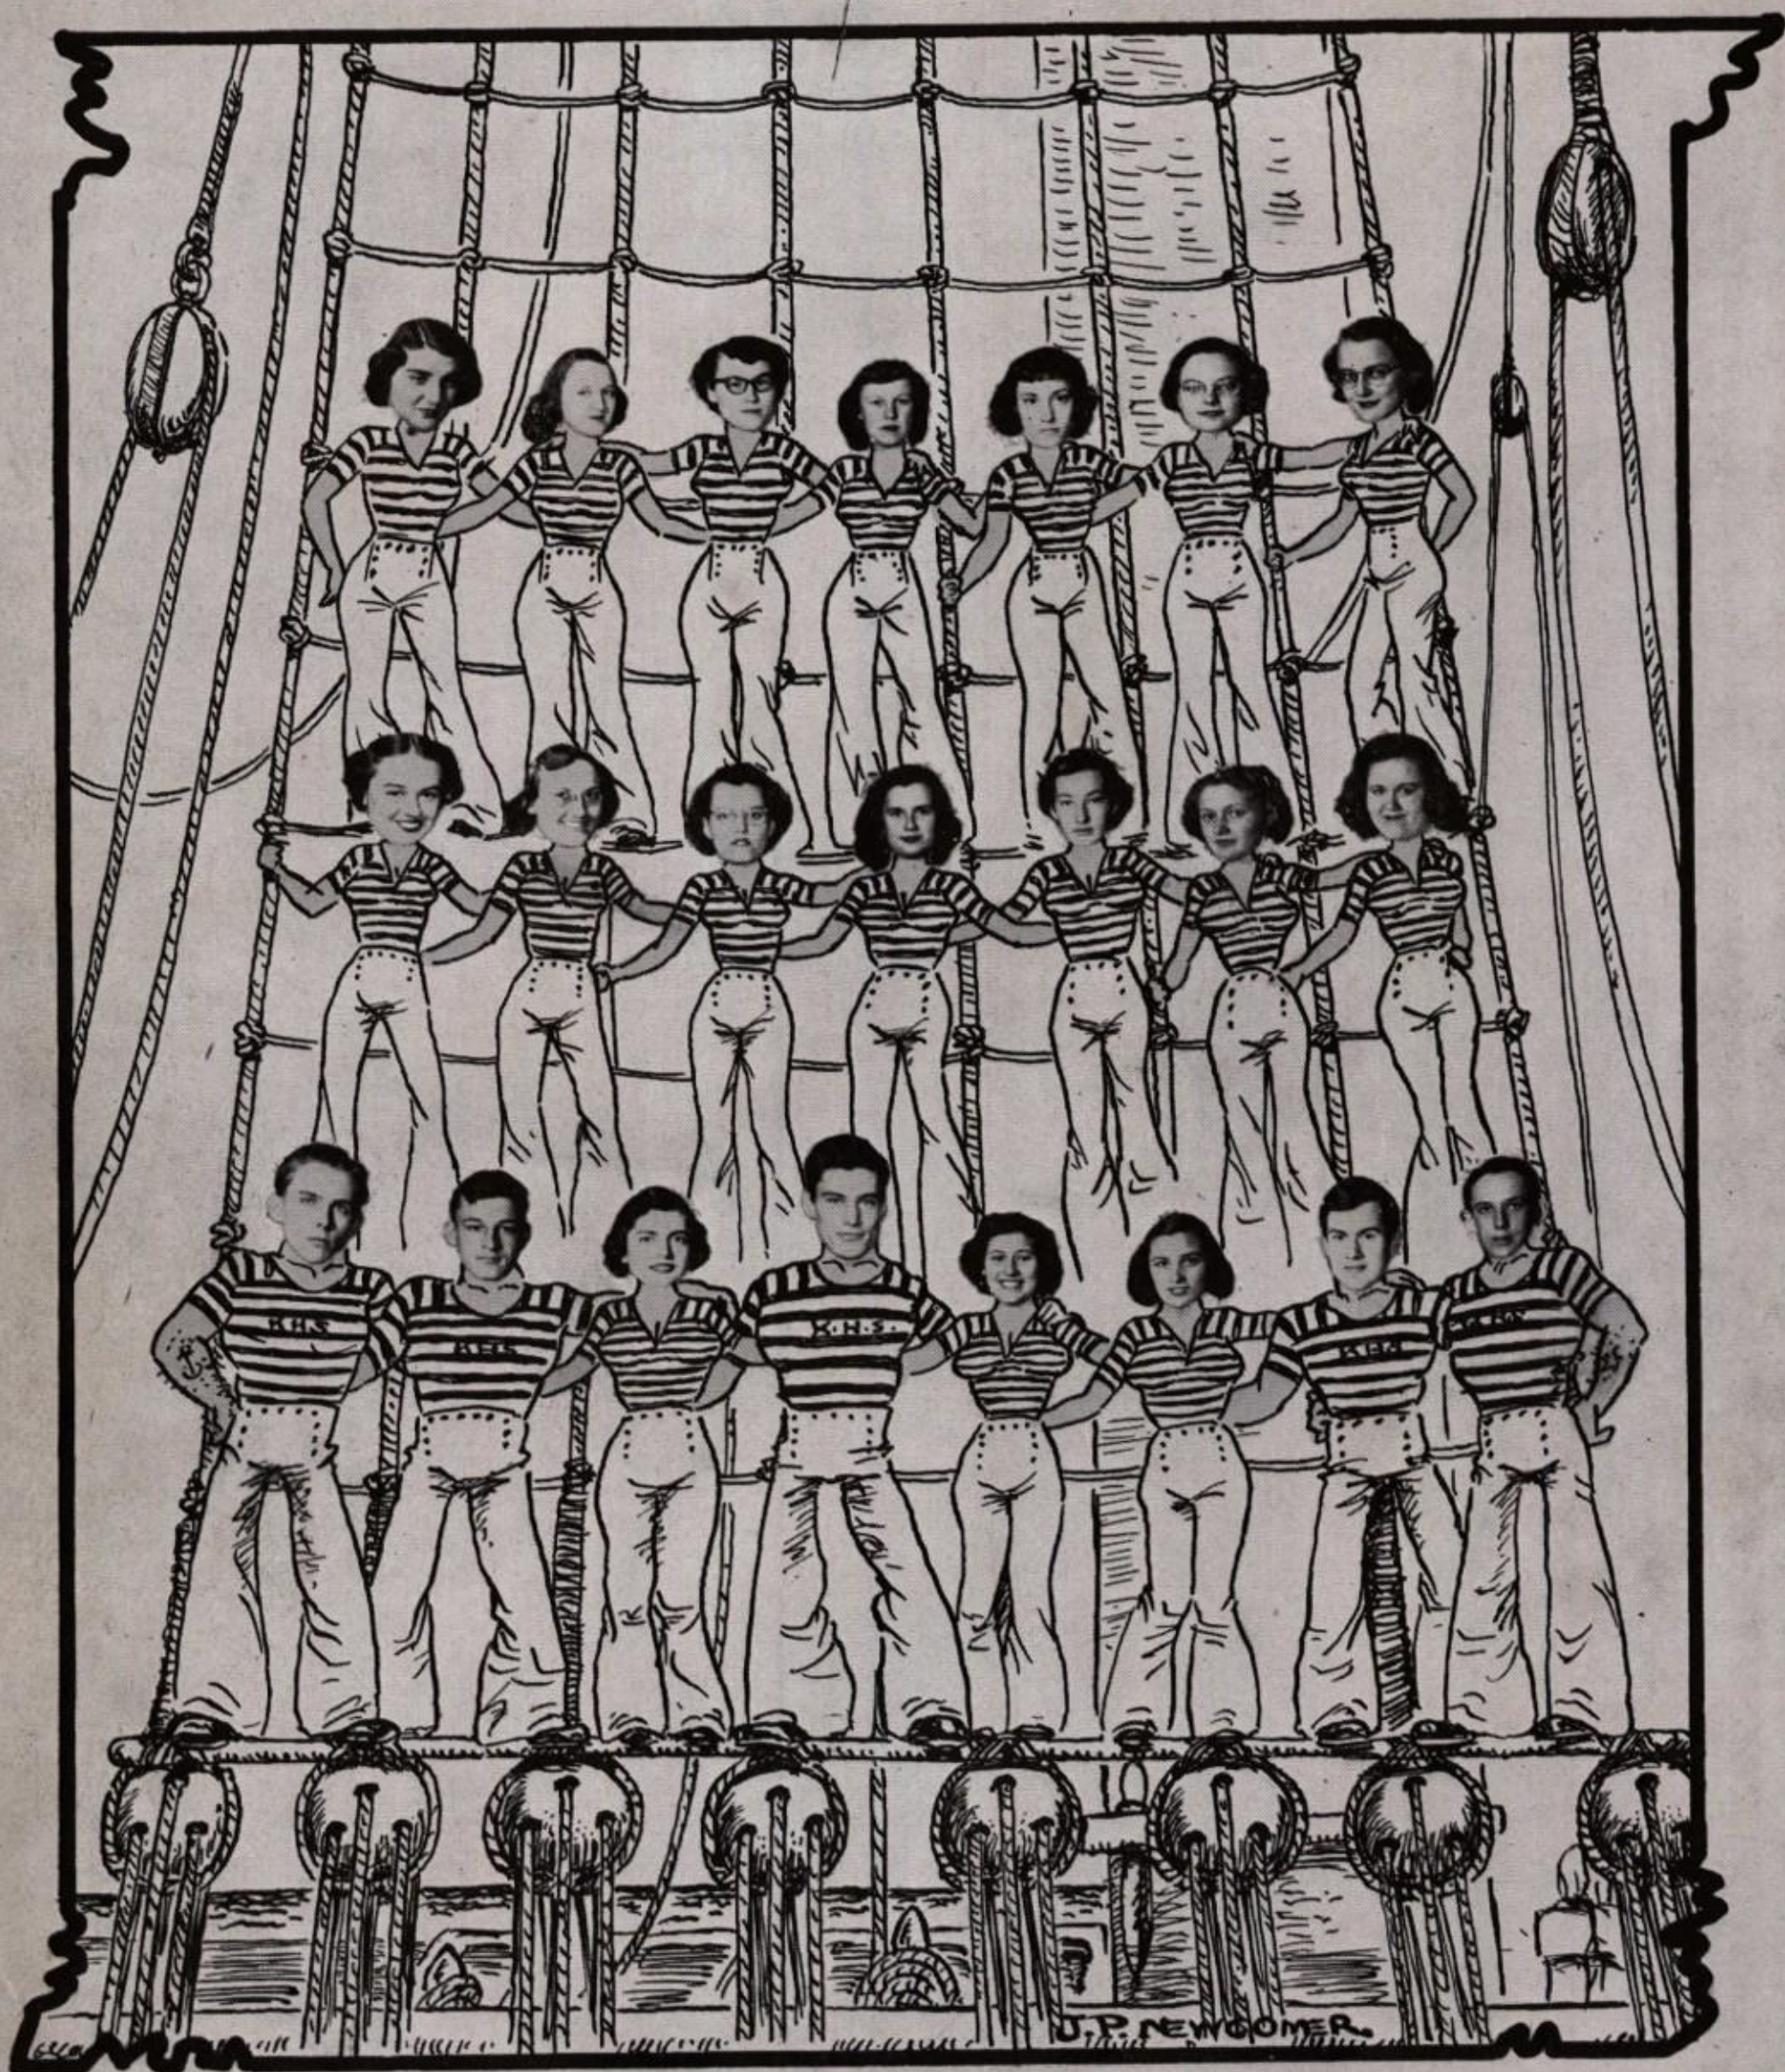

Think not she is gone;
That closed eyelids, drawn curtains,
 and torrents of darkness spell
 night, desolate and endless—everlasting nothingness.
The beams of waking morn will shatter the legions of night
And gild the new day, glorious and eternal.
She sleeps, peaceful and serene.
Say not "Farewell" but "Goodnight, Joy, sweet dreams;
We'll see you tomorrow."

SENIOR HISTORY

After cruising through four years of high school life, we Seniors have decided to set anchor and look back over our many experiences at K.H.S.

We entered K.H.S., our ship of knowledge, with a crew of thirty-seven, all looking expectantly toward initiation. We were successfully led through our first year by Wallace Howarter, assisted by Vice-President Sue Compton, Secretary-Treasurer Ruby Mansfield, and Mary Anne Straus, our Student Council Representative. Our faculty advisors, who did a wonderful job of helping us wear off our "green" look, were Miss Lindrothe and Mrs. Case. That year, our class was nobly represented at Homecoming by Marilyn Pierson, who was third maid-of-honor. She was escorted by John Daugherty and attended by Beverly Cochran.

Joyce Swigert led us through our Sophomore year with a class of thirty-eight members, along with Tom Fuller as Vice-President and Derrel Dempsey as Secretary-Treasurer. John Daugherty served as our Student Council Representative. Our patient class sponsors were Miss Voorhees and Mr. Farr. A successful Christmas Play was presented by our class, with the direction of Mr. Lisenby. Mary Anne Straus acted in behalf of the class at the 1947 Homecoming as third maid-of-honor, being escorted by LaVerne Markham and attended by Sue Compton.

As Juniors, our class was increased to forty-eight, due to Gilson's entering the decks of K.H.S. for the first time. The arrival of class rings before Christmas gave us good reason for being proud. Our capable leaders were President Frank Westerfield, Vice-President Marilyn Cramer, Secretary-Treasurer Mary Anne Straus, and Student Council Representative LaVerne Markham. Again Mr. Farr sponsored our progressing class, along with Miss Gooding, who provided valuable co-operation. In the Homecoming coronation of our Junior year, Ruby Mansfield, escorted by LaVerne Markham (chosen King of the class) and attended by Marilyn Cramer, proudly represented our class as third maid-of-honor. Not only the cast, but the whole class gained honors from our delightful comedy play, "Harvest Queen," under the helpful direction of Mrs. Ambrose. For the first time, the Juniors and Seniors of Knoxville joined six other local schools for "Swing Time," a formal dance held at the Roof Garden in Galesburg. The main event of the year was our memorable Junior-Senior Prom, which was held at the Soangetaha Club on a romantic evening in May. The theme "Touch of Heaven" was carried out, wherever possible, with heavenly features such as stars, planets, and angels.

The advancement from swabs to Lieutenants seemed strange at first, but we soon realized we were Seniors, for there were many responsibilities and activities which lay ahead of us.

Once again the Captain of the ship was Frank Westerfield. Other brass button officers were Vice-President Vesper Shenaut, Secretary-Treasurer Jerald Barlow, and Student Council Representatives Betty Tucker and Derrel Dempsey. The first event of the year was our friendly greeting to the Freshmen in the form of a fun-filled, but not too cruel, initiation, followed by a Senior all-school party. This was in honor of all the Freshmen whom we were glad to welcome. Homecoming gave us an opportunity to show that we were really dignified and capable Seniors. Our unique theme was "Lake Cruise," the stage forming the deck of the ship. The colorful decorations, the original stunts, and the beautiful coronation will always be remembered. Lovely Marilyn Cramer upheld the honors of our Senior Class by receiving the title of "Queen." Popular John Daugherty was her escort, and serving as attendant was Norma Young. Our Senior Play, a romantic comedy, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay," proved successful, through the efforts of Miss Isaacson. Due to further consolidation, there were now fifty-seven members in our crew. The Juniors were courteous hosts at their Junior-Senior Prom in May. The last few weeks of the school year brought forth many traditional activities, such as receiving and sending our announcements and cards, trying on caps and gowns, and signing Jesters. Baccalaureate Service was attended on Sunday, May 28. After this, came Class Day exercises, and before we could realize it, we had received our diplomas and graduation lay behind us.

We have reached the dock, and as we march down the gangplank leaving our ship, we take with us many wonderful memories of our trip through four successful years of high school on the good ship K.H.S.

JUNIORS

The fall of 1947 found the decks of K.H.S. filled with very bewildered "green" freshies. However, under the direction of Commanders Lindrothe and Shippy and Captain Ben Sherwood, a fun-packed year followed our entrance and we freshies discovered that K.H.S. was a grand ship.

During our Sophomore year, under the command of Captain John Larson, the class carried on with the many extra-curricular activities begun its Freshman year. At Christmas time, we put on an inspiring Christmas play. With such competent Commanders as Mrs. Ambrose and Mr. Heerde the year quickly drew to a close and the class began looking forward to being officers at last.

As the class of '51 we made ourselves noticed in more ways than one during a successful Junior year.

Ordering class rings from Josten's and having our pictures taken for the Jester occupied us during our first few weeks as Juniors.

This year we presented the prize-winning skit for Homecoming with a hilarious performance by Gerald Lambert, Keith (Spike) Seward, Ben Sherwood, Jack Clevenger, Jim Hutchcroft, John Larson, and Eliza Tucker. In the coronation Beverly Rambo, as the Homecoming Queen candidate, came in as third maid-of-honor, escorted by Rich Ireland and attended by Dora Jean Bybee.

The center of attraction for the month following Homecoming was tryouts and practices for the Junior play. In the play, "One Foot in Heaven," written by Hartzell Spence and directed by Miss Isaacson, the Speech and Dramatics teacher, the members of the Junior Class displayed outstanding dramatic abilities.

In the athletic department the Juniors also had a place. There were five football lettermen, three varsity basketball players and many trackmen from our class.

To climax the year, on the beautiful spring night of May 29, the Juniors honored the Seniors at the annual Junior-Senior Prom.

After three years aboard the good ship K.H.S., we are looking forward to next year's cruise when we will be full fledged captains.

Advisors	Miss Mary Isaacson, Mr. Bill Heerde

As ensigns, the members of the Sophomore Class successfully carried out their many and varied responsibilities and interests—study, fun, and frolic—during their second year aboard the good ship K.H.S.

The class of '52 entered enthusiastically into all shipboard activities, winning honors at the Homecoming festivities, in clubs, and especially in sports.

The boys represented the ensigns well on both the pony and the varsity basketball squads, on the cinder paths, and on the gridiron eleven. Pat Simkins and Diana Roseberry, two of the three pony cheerleaders, represented the girls.

Joan Carlson, Sophomore candidate for queen at Homecoming, was chosen as second maid of honor. Richard Henderson was her escort and Jean LaFollette, her attendant.

As the losing contender in the Magazine Drive sponsored by the Student Council, the class was host at a fun-packed all-school party held in March.

With memorable years behind them, the ensigns of the Class of '52 look happily forward to another two years aboard the good ship K.H.S.

FRESHMEN

President	Joann Edwards
Vice-President	Alan Lentz
Secretary-Treasurer	Louise Shreves
Student Council Representatives	Carol Ann Ferris, Larry Pierson

Apprentice Seamen, members of the Class of '53, boarded the decks of K.H.S. in September and took their first and faltering steps toward a goal long awaited.

Joann Edwards led her seamates through a gay year of parties, basketball and football games, and many other school activities.

Carol Ann Ferris, candidate for Homecoming Queen, was chosen first-maid-of-honor. John Liston was her escort, and Norma England was her attendant.

The Class of '53 was well represented in the many clubs, sports, and other extra-curricular activities. Sherry Randall was one of the three pony cheerleaders. Jack Block, James Ramp, John Liston, R. D. Swanson, and James Bjorkman were valuable members of the Bullets' Reserve basketball team. The freshmen were also ably represented on the gridiron.

Always on deck and ready to give help and suggestions whenever needed were the two class advisors, Captain Mullen and Captain Stamps.

Having successfully finished their first year's cruise, these apprentice seamen are looking forward to next fall when they may come aboard the good ship K.H.S. as full-fledged ensigns.

Getting ready for morning classes are, left to right: D. Myers, E. Pont, Shreves, Hoppock, C. Martin, Stamps, and R. Rambo.

FACULTY

Don Thomann

E. A. Jensen

Madge Terpening

Elaine Beaver Walker

This fall when we came aboard the Good Ship K.H.S., for our annual cruise, we were greeted not only by the officers of former years, but by seven new officers who had just come aboard. After a year under these pleasant and efficient leaders, Commodores Mullen, Swickard, Ames, Isaacson, Goff, Litchfield, and Swanson, we realize that we were indeed fortunate.

Fleet Admiral E. A. Jensen, with his ready smile for everyone, did a magnificent job of directing the cruise, so that everything ran smoothly and efficiently. He was well known to most of us as he had served as Fleet Admiral for a number of years.

Our present Admiral, Don Thomann, in his second year of command, has the respect of us all for the competency and ability with which he carries out his responsibilities.

Aide Elaine Beaver Walker, in her second year at this post of duty, most capably handles the various duties which her position entails and looks after all the ship's correspondence.

Aide Madge Terpening, in her first year at this position, not only gives valuable assistance to Aide Walker, but spreads cheer and creates good will among all on board.

themselves under the guidance of this well-liked and much admired leader. In his post also, as Commander of the Science Club, he has proved his worth and ability.

Equally well-liked is that handsome Commander Bill Heerde. This is his second year aboard K.H.S., in charge of World History, boys' gym classes, and head coach of football and basketball.

Probably one of the best loved of the ship's personnel is Commodore Wendell Stamps, who has given 21 years of faithful service to K.H.S. During those years as Coach, teacher of Civics, U. S. History, and Mechanical Drawing, he has endeared himself to hundreds of seamen as well as to officers. As one of the Commanders of the Freshman Class, he has won the love of all Apprentice Seamen who have been under his guidance.

Commodore Miles Ames, one of the new officers on board the K.H.S. this year, has capably and efficiently fulfilled the special duties of his post, teacher of World Geography, Secretarial Training, Bookkeeping and Shorthand.

Commodore Betty Gooding, whose pleasing personality has made her popular and well liked by all the students, is in her second year aboard the K.H.S. as teacher of Bookkeeping, General Business, and Typing. As Commander of the very active Pep Club, she has kept things humming. As Co-Commander of the Lt. Jr. Grade Seamen, she has helped to plan and carry out many activities.

Commodore Ruth McKown, a quiet and reserved officer, has been aboard the K.H.S. for two years, as teacher of Latin I and II, and English III. As Commander of the Latin Club, she has helped the members in carrying out many projects. She has also done a fine job in putting out the K.H.S. Log, The Blue Bulletin, and the yearbook, the Jester.

Commodore Harriette Huston, another well-loved officer, has been a member of the ship's personnel for 12 years. Her special duties have been carried out in the teaching of classes in Clothing I and II and Home Management. As one of the Commanders of the Lieutenants, she has capably and efficiently guided their activities, making the Seniors' last year pleasant and successful.

One of the new and attractive personalities aboard K.H.S. this year for the first time is Commander Mary Isaacson. Her special duties are the classes in English I, II, IV, and Speech. As one of the Commanders of the Ensigns, she proved a capable and efficient leader.

Commodore Mary Goff, in her first year as a member of the officer personnel of K.H.S., has very competently taught classes in English I and Foods, and in her off-duty hours has conducted a Foods Class for boys.

Also in his first year aboard the Good Ship K.H.S. is Commodore James Litchfield, whose special job is the teaching of Agriculture. Commander of the F.F.A., he has done notable work in helping the members to plan and carry out worthwhile projects. He has acted also as one of the Co-Commanders of the Lieutenants, helping in all activities undertaken by them.

Commodore Lloyd Swanson, another new member of the ship's roster of officers, has, in this short length of time, organized a Band and Chorus, both of which have given creditable performances on board ship throughout the year.

Quiet and charming Commodore Helen Lindrothe has been a member of the ship's personnel before. She capably and efficiently performs her duties by keeping the library in tip-top condition and the school accounts in order.

Commodore Jack Miller is in his second year aboard the K.H.S. His special duties are assistant coach of football and head coach of the ensigns and the apprentice seamen's basketball teams. The teaching of Freshman Science and Biology helps to keep him busy. Commodore Miller is also one of the Commanders of the Lieutenants, the members of the Senior Class.

Commodore Virginia Mullen Jones, in her first year aboard our ship, is the girls' P. E. instructor. She is also the instructor in General Science for the 7th Graders.

Commodore Jeannette Shearer has been a valued member of the officers' crew for six years. Her special duties are 7th and 8th Grade Math and Freshman Algebra. Commodore Shearer has been a friend of this year's Lieutenants throughout their four-year cruise, and will be greatly missed by them when they leave the ship.

Commodore James Swickard, who came aboard K.H.S. this year from Maquon, is kept busy teaching History, Citizenship, and Geography, and coaching the 7th and 8th Graders. This happy and pleasant officer has made a place for himself in the hearts of the men on board and the officer personnel.

Commodore Mable Woolsey holds the record for number of years of service on the Good Ship K.H.S. Throughout these years, her sparkling personality, her very real interest in those who are under her leadership, and her ability in carrying out the duties on board ship, have won for her the love and respect of everyone.

The Student Council began a highly successful year by electing John Daugherty to pilot it through the year and Don Pont to assist him as first mate. Ruth Patton was chosen to keep the log of the cruise.

Several of the most gratifying projects carried out during the course of the year included securing indoor lunch facilities, sponsoring the annual magazine drive, holding after-game dances, and a series of parties.

The constitution, being outdated, was revised to include new up-to-date rulings.

Many helpful suggestions were received through the suggestion box placed in the main hall.

Two representatives were chosen to attend the annual convention held in Peoria near the end of the year.

Mr. Don Thomann was the advisor.

The Future Farmers of America was newly organized this year under the direction of Mr. Litchfield. Officers for the year were Bill Eiker, president; Bill Heller, vice-president; Jack Block, 2nd vice-president; Raymond Rambo, secretary; Clark Wise, treasurer; Don Ryner, reporter; and Richard Ireland, sentinel.

It is an intra-curricular activity, because all boys who are in the club, must be enrolled in vocational agriculture and also have one or more outside projects.

Their colors, which appear on the emblems, are corn gold and national blue. The four grades of active membership are: "Green Hand", "Chapter Farmer", "State Farmer", and "American Farmer."

All boys in the club bought the national F.F.A. jackets of blue corduroy with the school name and national emblem on the backs and their name, office, and year on the front.

Sitting: T. Ferris, Pres.; Mr. Farr, Advisor.

The Science Club, only in its second year at KHS, but with a membership of 55, had a varied and full program of interesting and worthwhile activities. At the meetings held every two weeks, many projects designed to give a better understanding of science, from both a professional and a practical standpoint, were carried out. Experiments, demonstrations, talks, and field trips contributed toward this end.

On a field trip to Chicago the members visited the Science Museum, the Planetarium, and the Aquarium, and various other places of educational interest. Shorter trips to nearby points of scientific import were taken throughout the year.

Near the end of the second semester, a one-act scientific play, "All Wet," was presented in the school assembly.

The annual Science Fair, held in April, at which exhibits of all types were displayed throughout the school building, climaxed the year's activities.

Under the leadership of Derrel Dempsey, as chairman of the program committee, parties, wiener roasts and dances, and other social events were enjoyed.

The officers for this year were: President, Ted Ferris; Vice-President, Derrel Dempsey; Secretary-Treasurer, Laverne Markham; and John Daugherty, Reporter.

K---G A C

LATIN CLUB

The Latin Club, under the capable leadership of President Dorothy Bratton, Vice-President Sally Hopkins, and Secretary-Treasurer Sally Dinsmore, and with its twenty-two wide awake members, made Latin a living and functional language.

One of the first activities of the year was the selection of a club pin. The pin bearing the insignia of the Junior Classical League, a lighted torch surrounded by a laurel wreath, the Roman symbol of victory, was chosen and proudly worn by all the members.

Seasonal programs of songs, skits, and playlets and puppet shows in Latin, some of which were written by the members themselves, were presented at the meetings held each month. Saturnalia, the Roman Christmas, was observed at the December meeting. A lovely tea, honoring the mothers, was held during the Christmas season also.

A Kid party and program featuring Little Red Riding Hood, Mother Goose Rhymes, Row, Row, Row Your Boat, all in Latin, was presented by the newly initiated Freshmen members, welcoming the New Year. Pyramus and Thisbe, in the 1950 version, the love story of Cupid and Psyche, and a Valentine party, highlighted the February meeting. Interpretative dances, a fashion show, depicting costumes worn by members of a Roman family, and the March program, made the life of the Roman a reality.

The theme of the annual Roman Banquet in May was a Roman Wedding, presented in three scenes. The first scene showing the Betrothal, the second scene performing the Wedding ceremony, and the third, the procession to the groom's house, followed by a prayer for future happiness.

The banquet was prepared by mothers of the club members and was served by the students who will be enrolled in Latin I next year.

Mrs. Ruth McKown was the club sponsor.

SE-CO

The Se-Co Club, composed of girls who have had a year of home economics, began its year by electing Betty Tucker as president, Mary Myers, vice-president, Colleen Howarter, secretary-treasurer, and Joyce Burnaugh, club reporter.

At the monthly meetings, held the third Thursday of each month, demonstrations and reports were given by the club members, and talks on Kitchen-craft and other topics of interest to homemakers were given by the club members and outside speakers.

In December, the girls took a trip to Peoria. Here they visited the Northwest Research Laboratory and the furnishings and pottery departments of a number of large stores.

Other activities of the year included a bake sale, candy sales in the halls, and the combined Christmas party held with the K-GAC and Pep Clubs.

One of the special projects of Home Management class this year was for each girl to design and build a miniature room as she would like to have it. This included choosing the color scheme, selecting wallpaper and paint, rugs or linoleums, buying furniture, and arranging it.

The Foods Class' special project was to plan, prepare, and serve two meals to the faculty. The girls received grades for their efforts, as well as many thanks from the teachers.

Club sponsors were Mrs. Huston and Mrs. Goff.

Although one of the baby clubs of KHS, being organized last year, the Future Teachers of America was quite active this year. As the name implies, its membership is made up of those students who have definitely chosen teaching as their career, and its purpose is to create interest in the teaching field.

Monthly meetings were held at which guest speakers stressed for the members points about the profession which, they, as prospective teachers, would find valuable.

As a participation preparative project, club members corrected papers, made out tests, listed grades, and in various ways assisted the teachers with their work.

In accordance with the tradition of various clubs to name their chapter after some prominent person, the chapter at KHS is called the Jennie McElwain Chapter.

The officers for this year were: President, Ted Ferris; Vice-President, Peggy Davison; and Secretary-Treasurer, Donna Wetterburg.

Captain Jim Swickard and Captain Jeannette Shearer were club sponsors.

 Third Row: Richardson, B. Smith, R. Walker, Harding, Watts, J. Woolsey, Lambert, Claridge, Gagg, Clevenger, Henderson, F. Johnson.

Another organization initiated in KHS this year is the Junior Red Cross, the only organized high school club in Knox County. Interest was aroused last year when Marilyn Pruett and Betty Godfrey attended county meetings held every month.

With Dr. Thomann's help and the information gained through county meetings, a chapter was formed, with Gerald Lambert as president, Gale Rosine, vice-president, Marilyn Nelson, secretary-treasurer, and Marilyn Pruett, Betty Godfrey, and John Woolsey as county council representatives. Miss Mullen is chapter sponsor.

Meetings are held twice a month, during which such projects as gift packages for European children and first aid practice were carried out.

Marilyn Pruett was selected to attend the National Convention in Detroit for a week.

CHEERLEADERS

Four cute, pert, and peppy cheerleaders, Marilyn Cramer, Joyce Burnaugh, Joanne White and Pat Johnson, veterans all, with the exception of Pat, led the yells that inspired the Blue Bullets to win their many victories this past season.

Their outfits were especially clever this year, being made of blue and gold satin, with gold cap sleeves and collars. The bodices and swing skirts were made of blue and underlined with gold.

Many new yells, peppy and original, were initiated throughout the football and basketball seasons.

Our three pony cheerleaders, Pat Simkins and Diana Roseberry, sophomores, and Sherry Randall, freshman, turned on the pep that helped the Reserves in their many wins.

Especially snazzy were their white suits made with swing skirts and fitted bodices, with a large felt K on the front.

PEP CLUB OFFICERS

Patton, Miss Gooding, J. Swigert, Straus

The Pep Club, one of the largest clubs in K.H.S., this year has a membership of 73 girls. It is also one of the oldest clubs, having been actively organized in 1944.

One of its major purposes, achieved this year through the presentation of clever skits before each basketball game, is to promote pep in the student body for all sport events. One of the highlights of the year was the pep rally and bonfire at Homecoming.

A second major purpose is to encourage girls to try out for cheerleading and to support the cheerleaders in every way possible. This year the members of the Pep Club drew up a new set of rules and standards for the selection of cheerleaders.

At its first monthly meeting in the fall, new members were initiated into the club in a very impressive candlelighting ceremony. Other activities carried out during the year were cleaning the trophy case and shining up the trophies, filing trophy information, entertaining the football players at a banquet, attending out-of-town basketball games, sponsoring a spring formal, and giving a farewell tea for the senior members of the club.

Leading the group in its activities for the year were: Mary Anne Straus, president; Ruth Patton, vice-president; and Joyce Swigert, secretary-treasurer. Miss Betty Gooding was the advisor.

The Band, always a favorite, was reorganized this year, with a membership of sixty-eight.

After a month of intensive individual instruction by Mr. Swanson, band leader, the members were assembled for group practice on marches and other selections.

The big moment arrived in December when the band made its first public appearance in a concert presented before students, relatives, and other well-wishers, complete with fast-stepping majorettes.

A marching band to play at football and basketball games, and for parades, is the goal for the very near future.

GIRLS' CHORUS

The eighty-four member Girls' Chorus had an interesting and successful year. Under the expert direction of Mr. Lloyd Swanson, who gave much individual instruction, the girls quickly developed into a well balanced group, singing three-part harmony. Three-part music, being somewhat new and rather difficult, presented a stimulating challenge successfully met.

The entire Chorus appeared at Homecoming and at the Christmas assembly, participated in the Knox County Music Festival at Abingdon, and as a climaxing performance, gave a Spring Concert.

A sextet, composed of Sue Compton, Peggy Davison, Dorothy Bratton, Dora Jean Bybee, Grace Peyron, and Janet Weatherford, appeared on many programs sponsored by the various organizations of the community.

BOYS' CHORUS

This year, thirty boys turned out for choral work, with practice sessions being held three times each week.

Much unusual and surprisingly good talent was discovered by the able director, Mr. Swanson, throughout the year. John Woolsey, one of the outstanding members, with his unusual rendition of two current favorites, "Lucky Old Sun", and "Don't Cry, Joe," was awarded first prize for individual stunts at Homecoming.

The entire chorus sang at Homecoming and at the Christmas Assembly, took part in the Knox County Music Festival and the Spring Concert, and together with the Girls' Chorus presented the Spring Flower Festival.

JESTER STAFF

The Jester Staff, composed of twenty-two members, with Sue Compton as editor, Ruby Mansfield, assistant editor, and Helen Terpening, business manager, was even busier than usual this year with its double responsibility of publishing The Jester, the K.H.S. yearbook, and The Blue Bulletin, the newspaper, published weekly for the first time.

The staff was composed of twenty-two members, twenty seniors, and two juniors, Sally Hopkins and John Larson, who will be next year's editors. Each individual member worked faithfully at his job of writing copy, making lay-outs, writing headlines, taking pictures, and meeting deadlines.

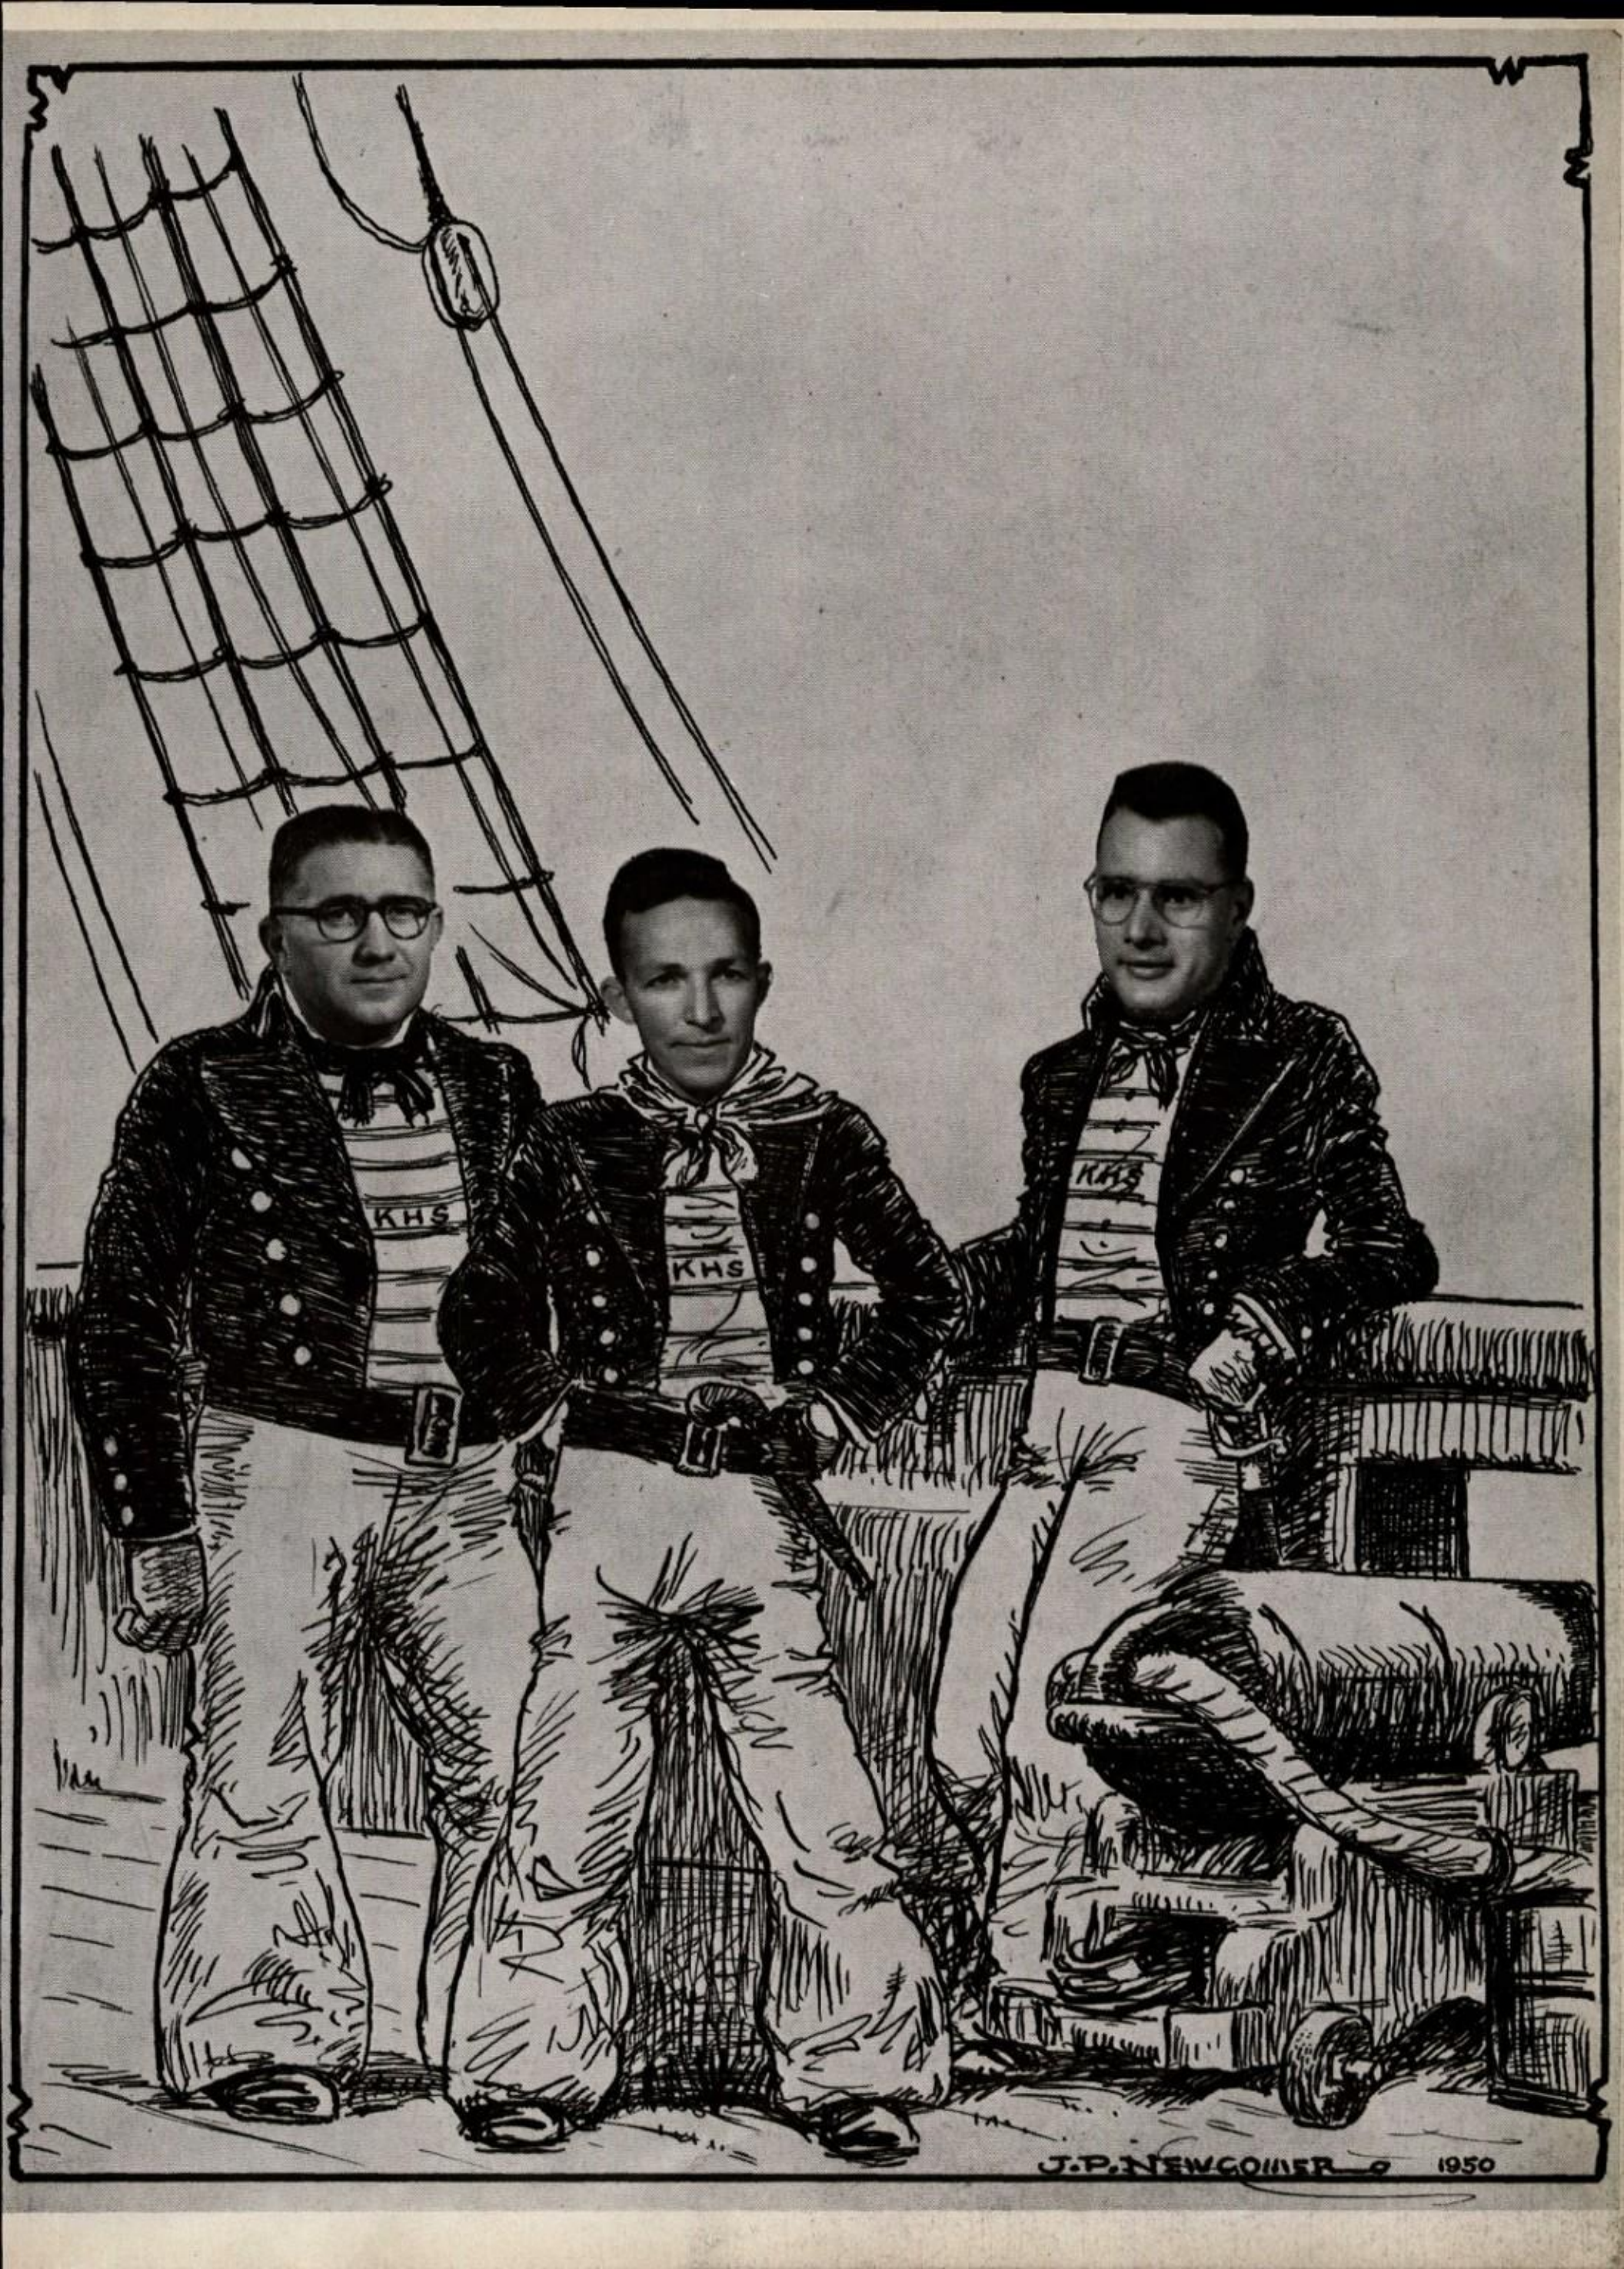

But it was not all work, as the Jester Staff party, Cupid Service, an assembly program, and the Spring Carnival provided lots of fun for the staff.

Mrs. Ruth McKown was Faculty Advisor.

Standing: J. Larson, Junior Editor; F. Westerfield, Make-Up Editor; Weatherford, Feature Editor; H. Terpening, Business Manager; W. Howerter, Sports Editor; M. Lewallen, Exchange Editor; Clark, Headline Editor.

Standing: Daugherty, J. Lashbrook, Cramer, M. Pierson, Cochran, Dempsey.
Seated: Klinck, Higgins, Burnaugh, McCormick, Davison.

JIM HUTCHCROFT: Jim who was offensive center, will be back next year to snap the ball true and exact and to finish his football career.

RICK JOHNSON: Rick, our left guard, was always in the opponents' hair. Since he is a soph he will be back for another great year.

JOHN DAUGHERTY: John was a pass snagging left end, who finished his football career this year.

WENDY CRAMER: Wendy was a speedy scatback and a hard man to bring down. He is a sophomore.

BUD WESTERFIELD: Bud was small, but mighty. On defensive he was tough to go around. He is a senior.

NELS PIERSON: Nels ably took an end position on defense. Because of his shoe-string tackles the opponents will remember him.

BILL ROE: Bill, a speedy sophomore, was put out of action with a broken leg. Tough luck, Bill!

RALPH BROWN: Roscoe, hard fighting tackle, will be around to make it tough on the opposition next year. Ralph's a Junior.

ROLLY EKLUND: A sophomore end; a fast running pass snagger. Rolly will be back for two more years.

GLEN HARTNELL: This was "Rosy's" second season of football and he saw plenty of action in the line. He was a good blocker and had lots of spirit.

TOM WALKER: This was Tom's first season of football. He held a tackle position and did a fine job considering his inexperience.

MICKEY LACY: A sophomore quarterback, well remembered for his signal calling and southpaw passing.

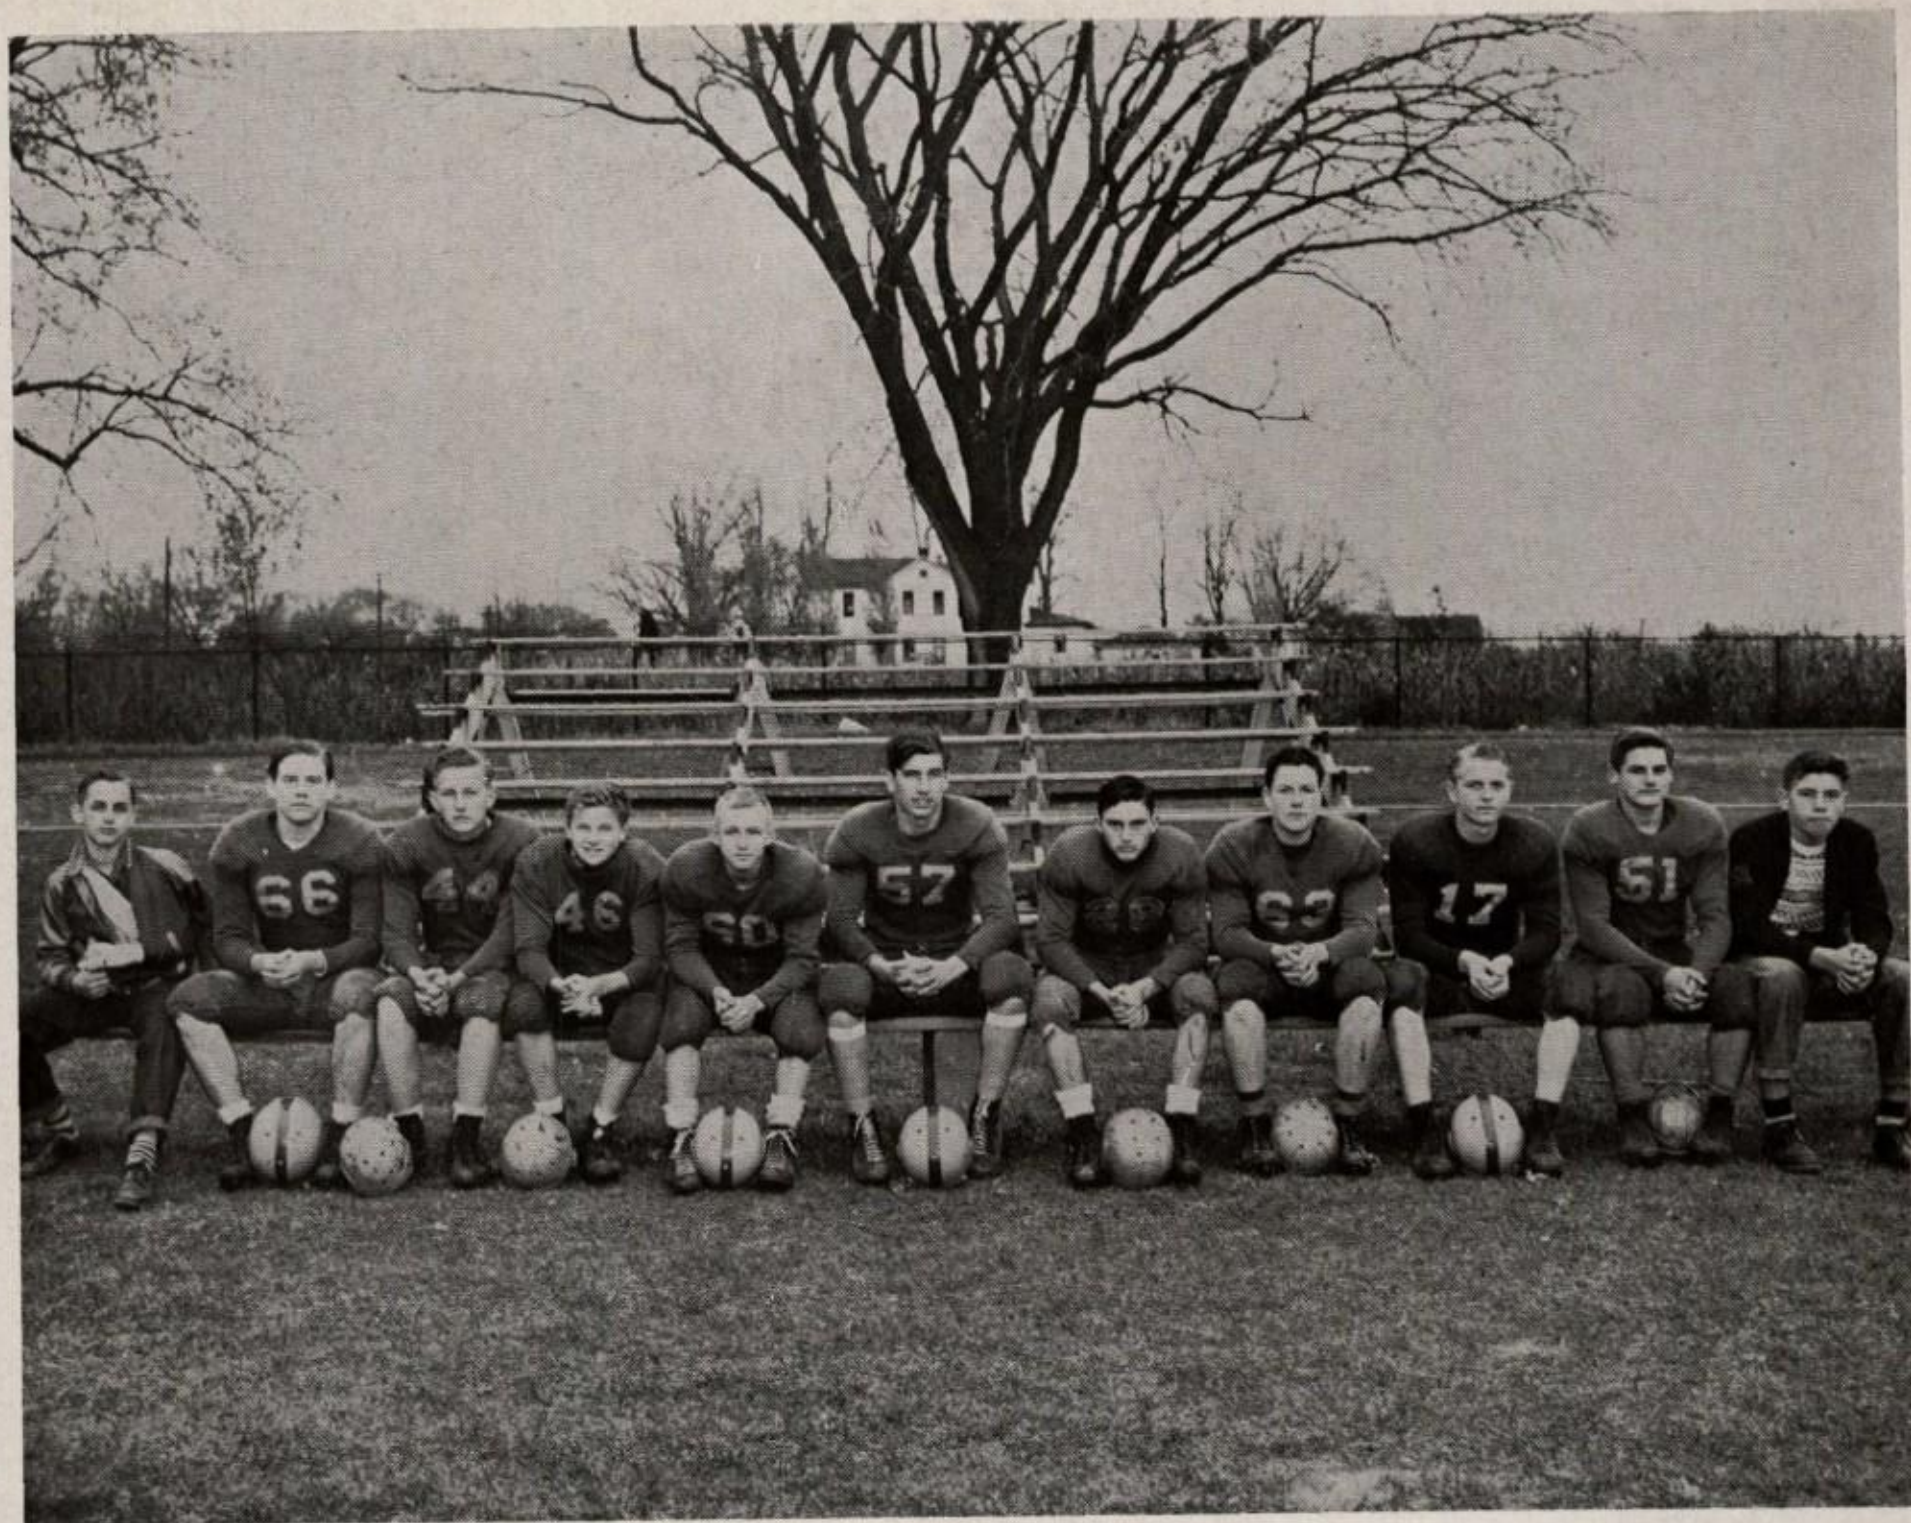

LEON HENDERSON: Leon was one of our sophomore tackles. He was a rough charger because of his smashing style.

LAVERNE MARKHAM: "Mac" was our regular left halfback this year. A very hard runner, who also handled the punting.

BILL EIKER: Bill was a sophomore guard and a fine tackle who always got his man.

JACK CLEVENGER: A slashing, hard running fullback who will be a great asset next year.

TED PUTNAM: A junior offensive right end, who saw action in all of the games. Tall and rangy, he never failed to do his bit in the play.

Seated, left to right: W. Roseberry, Harding, D. Pont, Bjorkman, F. Johnson, Lockhart, Heller, Gagg, Ryner, D. Westerfield, Watts.

Captain Bud Westerfield piloted the Blue and Gold tracksters through a highly successful season, adding yet another chapter to an enviable record compiled through four years of competition as a distance runner, especially in the mile.

Bud earned track letters in his Sophomore, Junior, and Senior years, and in addition, he took second place in the Cross-Country as a Junior and went on to win first place in this event a year later.

INITIATION

The traditional initiation of our Freshmen was held Friday, September 23, 1949, the Seniors being responsible for sponsoring this "fun day." Thursday at noon the poor little Freshmen received their instructions for the following day from Florella Klinck. On Friday, the "green freshies" came to school all decked out in faded overalls and shirts, worn inside out and backwards. The girls carried baby bottles, and the boys carried lovely big purses. Each boy escorted a girl, whom he had been assigned, to class.

Friday noon all the students of K.H.S. gathered on the football field to watch the freshmen "button" twenty-five times for the "All-Mighty Seniors." They also witnessed a sack race run by the Freshmen across the football field.

In the evening, the Seniors put on a gala party, to which everyone was invited. This was our first all-school party of the year, and was enjoyed by everybody (except the Freshmen), who entertained us with songs and stunts. A few of the humorous acts were John Liston, James Ramp, Jack Block and R. D. Swanson proposing to Sherry Randall; Mary Woolsey singing to Sammy Fox; and Tom Claridge being proposed to by Norma England, Marjorie Peterson and Janet Roselle.

The new teachers entertained with a skit and a dance to prove that they had talent as well as teaching ability.

To you, the Freshmen, who were so painfully embarrassed, we leave the tradition of carrying on initiation.

PARTIES

An initiation all-school party given by the Seniors in honor of the Freshmen was the first of a series of fun-filled parties which occurred during the year.

Near Easter, the Freshies proved to be delightful hosts by providing an Easter Egg hunt at a party for the entire student body.

The Sophomores showed themselves to be good losers by putting on a party, consisting mainly of folk dances, as a forfeit for selling the least number of magazines during the Student Council Magazine Drive.

Various programs of entertainment were presented at most of these social affairs, with a number of talented students taking part.

Each and every party proved to be successful through efforts of the activity sponsoring it.

Queen Marilyn Cramer and Escort John Daugherty

The Annual Festivities of 1949-50 Homecoming were held traditionally October 27-28 at the Knoxville Gymnasium. The Seniors worked weeks ahead of schedule deciding on the theme, the decorations and the food arrangements.

Homecoming began with a pep rally, and a clever skit, sponsored by the Pep Club, consisting of impersonations of Coach Heerde and the starting eleven and ending with the cheering crowd rallying around the flaming bonfire. That evening, the Knoxville Blue Bullets marched on the field against the Aledo Green Dragons and emerged victorious after a hard fought game with an 18 to 13 score.

The second day of Homecoming started out as usual with classes being held in the morning. However, the last three classes of the afternoon were dismissed in order that rehearsals for the Homecoming program could be held.

A Lake Cruise was the picturesque theme selected for the Homecoming and the colorful decorations carried this out with the front of the stage being patterned after a Lake Cruiser and the stage itself representing the ship's dining room.

The highlight of the evening was the lovely coronation. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Stone entered to the refrains of "Pomp and Circumstance." They were followed by the crown bearers, Judy Collinson and Jimmy Mathers. Third Maid of Honor, Beverly Rambo, wearing a lovely orchid gown, entered with her escort, Richard Ireland, and her attendant, Dora Jean Bybee. Joan Carlson, the very cute dark-haired Second Maid of Honor, followed, escorted by Richard Henderson and attended by Jeanne La-Follette. Next came blue-eyed Carol Ann Ferris, dressed in a demure blue gown, First Maid of honor, escorted by John Liston and attended by Norma England. Entering last in this beautiful and impressive procession was Her Majesty, Marilyn Cramer, crowned Homecoming Queen of 1949. She was escorted to the velvet covered throne by John Daugherty. Norma Young, her attendant, presented her with a lovely bouquet of red roses.

After the coronation, dancing to the beautiful strains of Wayne Ashley's five piece orchestra was enjoyed by all. Many favorite songs and popular tunes of the day were heard on the program. John Woolsey, singing "That Lucky Old Sun," won the individual prize of $3.00. The Junior Class presented a very clever skit entitled, "Spike Seward and Chloe," for which they received $5. Others who participated in making the Homecoming program a success were: Larry Harding, playing a trombone solo; Dora Jean Bybee and Christine Coons, singing "You Made Me Love You," "The Little Red School House"; Inez and Joy Sornberger dramatizing in song "Old Susanna" and "Sweet Betsy from Pike"; Peggy Davison singing "The Last Mile Home."

On December 8, a serious comedy, "One Foot In Heaven," was presented by the Junior Class as its annual production. The plot centered around Reverend William Spence and his devoted family.

Reverend Spence (Gerald Lambert), together with his high-school age, trouble making children, and gentle wife move into a dilapidated parsonage at their new parish. It's quite a shock, but that's not all. The church building is falling apart. Mrs. Jellison (Phyllis Cooper) and Mrs. Cambridge (Josephine Stevens), leaders in the church, engage in bitter arguments whenever they meet, and the Reverend's choir isn't what he wants it to be.

The town is being poisoned by bigotry. Eileen (Barbara Young) and Hartzell (Ward Roseberry), the teen-age children, are disgusted because they had to leave their old home and high school. But Hartzell meets a lass in this new town, Louise (Sally Hopkins), and Eileen meets Ronny (Jim Hutchcroft), captain of the local football squad. They then become satisfied with their new home.

Reverend Spence, however, is still having his troubles, organizing a new choir, trying to build a church, and eliminate religious intolerance. All this leads to war among those of his congregation. The very day he is to leave home to attend an important conference, he had an accident and was put to bed.

Meanwhile, Hartzell gets into trouble and winds up filling a vacant cell in the local jail house.

The surprise climax closed the curtain on an inspiring evening's entertainment.

Miss Mary Isaacson was the director.

SENIOR PLAY

The stage curtain of the K.H.S. theater opened upon a full house on April 18, when sixteen members of the Senior Class put on their most eloquent airs to present, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay," which proved to be one of the most entertaining performances ever to be given before a K.H.S. audience.

The play was based upon the escapades of two delightful girls, Cornelia Otis Skinner, ably played by Janet Weatherford, and Emily Kimbrough, taken by Helen Clark, who were determined to prove how "mature and cosmopolitan" they can be on an uproarious and charming trip to Europe.

Giving equally fine performances as Mother and Father were Donna Wetterburg and Ted Ferris. Leo and Dick, two good-looking medical students, were played by Derrel Dempsey and Duane Courter. Peg Davison and Ruby Mansfield rendered their impersonations of Harriet and Winifred, two "ripping" English girls. The role of the poor bewildered steward was taken by Howard Johnson. Dorcas Witherell and Mary Anne Straus were cast as Madame Elise, a charming French landlady, and Therese, her daughter. The friendly ship captain was David Reynolds, and Florella Klinck was the Stewardess. Sue Compton played the part of the inspector and George Hutson, the role of the sympathetic window cleaner. Tom Claridge was in the role of the charming and fiery De la Croix of the Comedie Francaise, to complete the cast.

The play was under the capable and outstanding direction of Miss Mary Isaacson.

An exciting moment for Sally Hopkins is the night of the Prom when Jim Hutchcroft comes to escort her to the dance.

Hurrying up the walk to the clubhouse are, l. to r.: Mrs. Litchfield, Mr. Litchfield, J. Swigert, F. Westfield, Pruett, and Putnam.

PROM

At the Soangetaha Country Clubhouse, an evening of dancing was enjoyed by the following couples: left to right—Bratton, Larson, G. Edwards, D. Dempsey, B. Young, Seward, Weatherford and Daugherty.

Soft lights, sweet music, and the indefinable Southern aura of hospitality made the "Tara Cotillion," the 1950 Junior-Senior Prom, a delightful and cherished climax to the 4-years' cruise of the Seniors on the Good Ship K.H.S. The Soangetaha Country Club made a beautiful setting as Tara Hall, where dinner, dancing and a program of music made up a gala evening.

Robert E. Lee, Ben Sherwood, the master of ceremonies, introduced the speakers. Scarlett O'Hara, Dot Bratton, president of the Junior Class, welcomed the guests to Tara Hall. Rhett Butler, Bud Westerfield, president of the Senior Class, responded. Thomas Jackson, Dr. Thomann, and Jefferson Davis, Dr. Jensen, distinguished guests, were the other two speakers of the evening.

Dancing to the sweet and dreamy strains of Wayne Ashley's orchestra was enjoyed.

For the Juniors and Seniors, May 29, 1950, will always remain a cherished and never-to-be-forgotten date on the log of the SS K.H.S.

CALENDAR

SEPTEMBER

- 12—Everyone stormed the halls of good old K.H.S., greeted each other joyously, and told all how happy (?) they were to be back at long last. (Couldn't have stood the waiting much longer!)
- 15—The Student Council has already been at work and has sent the new constitution to the classes to be ratified. At these meetings, class officers were also nominated.
- 19—Mrs. McKown: "What was the greatest accomplishment of the Romans?"
Dot Bratton: "Speaking Latin."
- 23—"We praise the almighty Seniors," was the cry of the Freshmen as they were welcomed by the Seniors into the fellowship of K.H.S.
- 24—We started our football season by giving Corpus Christi the "raspberry" to the tune of 20 to 9.
- 27—Madge: "You should have been here at nine."
Student: "Why, was anything doing?"
- 30—Suffered our first defeat at the hands of Princeville, 12 to 8.

OCTOBER

- 4—The juniors selected their class rings today. They say they're 400 carat!
- 5—I'll bet Shrimp and Duane ran the telephone bill up about $10. They were calling about Homecoming, they said!
- 7—My, I'll never be the same again! What a game! Abingdon will never live it down. And 5 whole points, too!
- 10—It is noteworthy and commendable to mention the fact that it was so QUIET that about ten people asked what the matter was.
- 14—Hurrah!!! No school for the students today, just for teachers. (Aren't they the lucky ones, though?)
- 19—The chemistry classes took a trip to the pumping station at Laura. (Learn anything about the smell of crude oil?)
- 20—Mr. Farr: "Did 'ja hear about the little moron who ate uranium and got atomic ache?"
- 23—A sad day for most of us. The end of the first six weeks period; and report cards had to be signed.
- 26—Homecoming is really close now! Dress rehearsal tonight.
- 28—A successful Homecoming, made more successful through the winning of the Homecoming game. The "Lake Cruise" was presided over by Queen Marilyn Cramer whose escort was John Daugherty.
- 31—Spooks were abroad, especially at the Science Club Party!

NOVEMBER

- 1—Juniors are getting busy now. Tryouts for their play started today.
- 1—Miss Isaacson explaining after-dinner speaking: "After-dinner speaking is the art of saying nothing briefly."
- 7—The Juniors are all set now. Practice tonight, and bring your pencils!
- 10—Magazine sale opens.
- 11—Where was everyone?
- 15—V-Roy the Magician performed his feats of wonder, and put some money in the FFA treasury besides.
- 18—Pep Club threw a big banquet for the Little Six Champs of the football season.
- 22—First basketball game at home. Alwood beat us 58 to 35.
- 23—Hurrah! for the fun, is the pudding done?
- 23—Mr. Farr: "If, in going down this incline, I gain four feet per second, what will be my condition at the end of 25 seconds?"
Ruth Patton: "You'll be a centipede."
- 26—Thanksgiving vacation is going to be fun!
- 28—Did everyone get surprised or not? Elaine sure pulled a fast one that time. Is your "aunt's" name Alan, Elaine?
- 30—Miss Gooding was the most popular girl in school today. Why? 'Cause the Junior class rings arrived. (Didn't you hear, Pete?)

DECEMBER

- 8—Junior Play, "One Foot in Heaven." Something new and interesting in the way of plays. Thanks for a swell job!
- 12—Latin Club Tea for the mothers of the club members.
- 13—SeCo Club trip to Peoria. Did you have a good time?
- 13—The prof who sent his wife to the bank and kissed his money good-bye was not absent-minded.
- 21—Christmas assembly, featuring the choruses. Hurrah, school's out! Have to get my Christmas shopping done early.

CALENDAR

JANUARY

- 2—Semester examinations were abolished. We still have tests at the end of the six weeks though!
- 16—All those who must their palates tickle
By chomping highly seasoned chicle
May even up their bovine score
By pasturing here till half-past four!
- 23—Knox County Tournament.
- 30—A bored cat and an interested cat were watching a tennis game.
"You seem very interested in tennis," said the bored cat.
"It's not that," said the interested cat, "but my old man's in the racket."

FEBRUARY

- 1—All-school party, sponsored by the Student Council.
- 2-3—Teachers had to go to school again! Vacation because of Teachers' Institute.
- 10—Lincoln Day assembly, sponsored by the Social Problems class.
- 17—Last home game with Stronghurst. We won!
- 20—Office clock disappeared and now we don't have anything to look at. Guess we know who the clock-watchers are now!
- 21—Meeting held in Galesburg about the Swingtime Prom.
- 23—Wonder why the Pep Club girls are rushing around so much these days. Having a good time with the flowers, Florella?
- 27—Definition: DICTIONARY—A place where you try to find a word you can't spell.

MARCH

- 2—"Did you pass your finals?"
"And how!"
"Were they easy?"
"Dunno . . . ask Jim."
- 10—Faculty "hotshots" beat the Senior boys by a score of about 60 points! The Seniors had a very enjoyable party, featuring rollicking square dances. The eighth grade also had square dancing at its party in the Study Hall.
- 11—Proposed school plan defeated by voters.
- 17—Sophomore all-school party with a cute Circus theme. This was in payment for its loss in the magazine drive. A fine concert was given by the Galesburg High School Choir at an assembly.
- 20—You're young only once. But if you play your cards right, once is enough.

- 22—Art Derham's big day in Chemistry. Do you plan to paint the top of the desk, Art? Several Seniors journeyed to Macomb for the annual Senior day.
- 24—Pep Club Formal—"Easter Parade." Congratulations for a job well done.
- 25—District Contest, in which our sextet and six soloists participated.
- 31—Jester Carnival—Splendid co-operation made this Carnival one of the most successful ever.

APRIL

- 6—Freshman all-school party.
- 7—Good Friday. We had vacation today.
- 17—Science Fair.
- 18—Senior Play, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay." Excellent casting, direction, and help behind the scenes made this play a great success.
- 21—Band Concert. The social debut of our band. Swell job!
- 22—Student Council Convention in Peoria.
- 30—A considerate professor is one who talks you to sleep, then wakes you five minutes early so you won't be late for your next class.

MAY

- 5—Knox County Track Meet. Swingtime Prom was held at the Galesburg Armory.
- 9—Irate father: "You young whippersnapper—I'll teach you to kiss my daughter."
Boy: "Too late—I've learned already."
- 12—A delightful concert was given by the combined choruses.
- 15—District Baseball contest.
- 16—Little Six Track Meet in Monmouth.
- 19—Senior Skip Day.
- 22—Latin Club Roman Banquet.
- 28—Baccalaureate.
- 29—Junior-Senior Prom. The Juniors proved their abilities by sponsoring a superb evening!
- 30—A day of rest for the Seniors (and others), giving them time to collect themselves for the big days ahead.

JUNE

- 1—Class Day!
- 2—Graduation. And the end of the cruise on the Good Ship K.H.S.

Hats off again this year to our faithful and efficient corps of bus drivers, who, through fair weather and foul, are always on the job. In addition to their two regular trips daily, they have cheerfully made extra trips to out-of-town games, and to other activities on the school's extracurricular calendar. Five new busses were added this year. The drivers are: left to right, Ralph Carlson, Vivian Carlson, Harold King, Paul Meredith, Dale Bragg, Ford Symonds, Harold Liston, Charles Beaver and Harold Carlson.

Our thanks go also to our three janitors who throughout the year keep our school home neat and clean, and on those cold, wintry days, warm and comfortable. They gave us help, too, at our football and basketball concessions, Senior Homecoming, Jester Carnival, and the many school parties held in the evenings. And of course they did those many little odd jobs like replacing broken window panes, washing windows, mowing the lawn, and the thousand and one things that must be done to keep the school machinery in good working order.

BOARD

Pumfrey, Gullet, Bowman, Cecil, England, Stone, Block

Maintaining an efficient and smoothly operating school system requires many hours of thoughtful planning and painstaking effort as well as the ability to envision future needs and the ways by which those needs may be met. The members of the Board of Education of the Knoxville Community Unit Schools, District 202, have this year, as always, worked with the one goal in mind, the future educational welfare of the students of District 202.

An ever expanding and challenging curriculum, an interested and enlightened faculty, and a more adequately equipped school plant are the ideals toward which the board is continuously directing its thoughts and energies.

A NEW MEMBER OF THE K.H.S. FAMILY!!!

PAUL NEWCOMER
